

*Chi tene a mamma è ricche e nun 'o sape;
chi tene a mamma è felice e nun ll'apprezza
pecchè ll'ammore 'e mamma è 'na ricchezza
è comme 'o mare ca nun fernesce maje.
Pure ll'omme cchiù triste e malamente
è ancora bbuon si vò bbene 'a mamma.
A mamma tutto te dà, niente te chiede
e si te vede 'e chiagnere senza sape 'o picche...
t'a stregne 'mpiette e chiagne 'insieme a tè!
Raffaella è la mia laDiva, RAFFAELLA è la mia mamma*

By Salvatore Di Giacomo

Ho dedicato questa poesia di Salvatore Di Giacomo a mia mamma e tutte le mamme del mondo, perché mentre ultimavo il catalogo RAFFAELLA, ero con lei a Napoli con mia moglie ed i miei figli ed ho scritto via email con un mio amico, cliente americano Louis A. Giannini Jr. che aveva bisogno di alcune cose di ceramiche, ma appena ha sentito che ero a Napoli con mia madre mi ha scritto poche ma GRANDISSIME parole:

- 14 luglio, ore 16:10 -

Hello Fabio,

I would give anything to spend one more minute with my Mother.

Please enjoy your visit - send our best regards to her from your friends in America.

We will follow up next week.

Dire che mi sono commosso è poco, viva la mamma, viva la famiglia, viva l'amicizia. Grazie Louis per la bellissima email, queste cose non hanno prezzo e vanno condivise per tutti!

*Whoever has a mother is rich and not aware to be Whoever has a mother is happy and does not appreciate it
Because the love from a mother is richness
It's like the sea that never ends
Even the saddest man is still loving it he loves his mother.
Your mother gave you everything and does not want anything in return.
If she ever sees you upset not knowing the reason
she will hold you tight and be upset with you Raffaella is my Diva, RAFFAELLA is my mother*

By Salvatore Di Giacomo

I dedicated this poem written by Salvatore Di Giacomo to my mother and all the mothers out there, as my last catalogue RAFFAELLA was inspired during my stay in Naples with my whole family and my beloved mother. I was also in contact with a dear friend to me Louis A. Giannini Jr. that needed some things regarding ceramics and as soon as he knew I was with my family he wrote to me some very deep words:

- 14 July, time 16:10 -

Hello Fabio,

I would give anything to spend one more minute with my Mother.

Please enjoy your visit - send our best regards to her from your friends in America.

We will follow up next week.

I took his reply very personally and that is why I am here saying that we should all cherish the family, friendships and people who are close to you. Thankyou Louis for the beautiful email, these moments and things are priceless and should be shared upon everyone
