Back to Nature

It's a great feeling to put down roots and really feel at home. With the Back to Nature collection, this comes naturally. Natural and atmospheric, authentic and artistic - this is how we bring nature into the home with the wallpaper designs.

Realistic wood grains and fine woven designs create a feeling of originality and harmony. These are complemented by delicate leaf motifs and geometric fabric patterns have also been stylishly interspersed. The three-dimensional effects are particularly fascinating, creating an unmistakable depth.

And the colour palette? Soft earth and wood tones such as grey, green, brown and beige effortlessly create a warm, homely atmosphere that invites you to linger. In this way, Back to Nature creates a harmonious refuge in which nature is visibly tangible and transforms our home into a place of cosiness.
